Congratulations to all. Harvest for 2012/13 has ended! It has certainly been an odd year for all. It is good to be done with this portion of the year so that we can move on.

OR had production in Week 9 and a very small bit of production in Week 10, as well. All of this production is being reported in Week 9 so that we can finish the crop year and economize a bit on mailings.

WA finished its production with Week 9, too.

General - There might be some revisions and adjustments to the production numbers as handlers check and confirm their production records. These are not likely to be very significant.

Sept. 13, 2012 - The CIAB has its conference call on this date to finalize the OSF calculations.
